ASTOR AND FORMER WIFE MEET AT DANCE

Divorced Pair Together at Newport for First Time Since Decree.

NEWPORT, August 20.—Col. John Jacob Astor is off for Bar Harbor today on board his yacht with his son, Vincent, and Richard Peters. So far as is known Col. Astor had not laid eyes on his former wife until last evening at the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Beatty in honor of the officers of the Atlantic fleet, when every one who is any one socially was there.

Mrs. Astor wore her famous decollete gown of black with her rope of pearls. Col. Astor came with Miss Roberta Willard, a recent debutante, and his son, Vincent.

The son and mother were most cordial and the boy danced several times with her.

Col. Astor, who dearly loves his daughter Muriel, who lives with her mother, met her today by accident as both were out in automobiles. They stopped to chat and seemed extremely happy at the meeting.

Friends Using Good Offices.

What took place is known only by father and daughter, and all the Astors refuse to talk on the subject of their domestic relations, which is the gossip of all Newport.

If Mrs. Astor is unhappy she is not showing it outwardly. It is true that friends of both are using every means to have the couple united, but there seems little likelihood of this being accomplished at present.

It is the strangest chapter of the Astor separation and divorce that those who took sides with either before the divorce was granted are now united in attempting to bring Col. and Mrs. Astor together again. But one matrimonial declared yesterday afternoon: "Did you ever hear of divorced couples in the cottage settling coming together after such an affair? No, nor has any one else."

Mrs. Ogden Mills Active.

The fact that Col. Astor is leaving almost on the very arrival of his former wife, tells the story.

Mrs. Ogden Mills seems to be the leading spirit in trying to bring the couple together, but all her efforts have so far failed.

Through Miss Muriel Astor is still very young, she is very bright and the pet of the cottage settlement. It will be her good fortune to be among the many guests that James J. Van Alen is to have at his grand party for his grandsons next week on the lawn of Wakehurst, when Miss Muriel will meet all the children in the cottage settlement.

BLUES ONE POINT AHEAD

JUST BEAT REDS OF MAGRUDER SCHOOL CENTER.

Field and Track Events Hotly Contested—Score Is 68 to 67.

The rival athletic camps of the Magruder School Recreation Center met in field and track competition and in athletic games contest yesterday afternoon, with final honors about even. The score resulted in 68 points for blues and 67 points for reds.

Events were closely and hotly contested in the keenest competition of the season. A regular old-fashioned horseshoe tournament began the exercises, in which George Thomas was winning knight.

Races Are Exciting.

The obstacle race proved a strong feature, with its course over hurdles, over the stile, through swings, up and down the see-saws, and back over the same course. Ten hardy, husky, lusty-lunged reds and ten blues swung for dear life on their ends in the tug of war, which finally was won by the reds, but not until the blues were hauled bodily into the camp of the enemy.

Forty little boys used as potatoes were pulled, carried, pushed and thrown about in the human potato race by the larger boys, in which William Holmes, after a series of heats, was cheered as victor. The team games were run off in the dark of the evening, with the blues slightly in the lead of the red teams at volleyball and base ball.

During these events the girls of the rival camps indulged in tether ball, croquet and team games, and spent the evening in jolly fashion.

ACTRESS ELOPES WITH THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY

Infatuated Woman Attempts Suicide After Her Arrest and Separation From the Lad.

PITTSBURG, Pa., August 20.—Madeline Hudson, or Madeline Rissus, an actress of twenty-four years, who has been playing in small theaters in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio towns, is in the Allegheny General Hospital suffering from an attempt on her own life made last evening after she had been separated from Arnold Thompson, a thirteen-year-old boy, with whom she eloped Monday.

From her recovery Miss Hudson will probably be charged with horse stealing as well as with kidnapping, for it is alleged that a horse and buggy found here belonging to the Red Lion livery stable of Youngstown, Ohio, was stolen, though both the girl and her child companion declare they hired it, intending to return with it and pay the hire.

Miss Hudson some weeks ago engaged a room from Mrs. Arnold Thompson, in a rooming house in Pittsburgh, where she was employed at one of the smaller theaters. Then she became madly infatuated with him, and disappeared Monday with him, going to Youngstown, Ohio. There they stole out, and the evidence is that they stole the buggy in which they were arrested when they reached Pittsburgh today. Re-crossing the river, Miss Hudson drank a bottle of acid which she carried.

"Will" Brooks, a negro suspected of being a fugitive from North Carolina, was arrested at Danville, Va. In his trunk was found a glass distillery with various chemical compounds, together with a book of instructions, telling how to make imitation whisky quick and cheap. A gallon of fluid marked alcohol was also seized.

A few days ago Mrs. Crossman got a good-sized head out of the cabbage patch and when she cut into it the knife struck something hard, which proved to be her husband's lost coin.
